The
LISTOWEL ARMS HOTEL

The Square, Listowel, Co. Kerry

...which is aptly named after a group of famous writers from North Kerry. Take a minute to look at the famous literary faces that hang on the walls.

The Listowel Arms Hotel is housed in the original historic Inn which dates back to 1790. It has welcomed some famous names in Irish History such as Charles Stewart Parnell & Daniel O'Connell, who gave speeches from the first floor windows.

Originally owned by the Adams Family whose only daughter married Gerald McElligott in 1854, the hotel was owned by the McElligott family for 100 years until their grandson Gerald Jr McElligott sold the house to the famous tenor Joseph Locke in 1954 who changed the name to the "White Horse Inn".

The Listowel Arms Hotel is currently owned by the O'Callaghan family since 1996. Bernard O'Callaghan, a north Kerry man from Moyvane along with his wife Josie Ahern from Ballylongford, set about extending and restoring the Georgian building in keeping with it's historic past.

The O'Callaghan Family have fallen in love with "Lovely Listowel" and we hope, like the McElligotts, to be here for 100 years or more

Our aim is to provide wholesome fresh food in comfortable surroundings with welcoming service from our waiting staff.

We do hope you enjoy your visit!!
